BY ROAD TO NEPAL

Scenic Journeys

These border-to-border routes are very popular for travelers from India. They connect key cities, major cultural and religious sites, and offer a range of experiences from pilgrimage to wildlife and nature exploration, making them ideal for a variety of travelers.

1. Raxaul (India) to Birgunj (Nepal)
The Raxaul-Birgunj border is a key route to Nepal, offering easy access to Kathmandu, 115 km away. Popular for cultural and religious tourism, it's ideal for Indian pilgrims and tourists exploring Nepal's spiritual heritage and nearby destinations.

2. Sunauli (India) to Bhairahawa (Nepal)
The border crossing leads to Lumbini, the birthplace of Lord Buddha, part of the Nepal Buddhist Pilgrimage Package. It's a popular route for Buddhists and those seeking spiritual experiences, connecting key spiritual or other destinations in Nepal.

3. Jaynagar (India) to Janakpur (Nepal)
For those traveling to Janakpur, the Jaynagar (India) to Janakpur (Nepal) route is a convenient and short drive. The Janakpur Pilgrimage Package is popular among pilgrims, particularly those from Bihar and Uttar Pradesh, who visit this sacred city or wants to connect other destinations of Nepal.

4. Kakdvitta (India) to Biratnagar (Nepal)
This border crossing is a good option for travelers heading to the eastern part of Nepal. From Biratnagar, you can travel to Dharan and then proceed to Kathmandu. This route is popular for tourists from the northeastern parts of India, especially those seeking to explore eastern Nepal's beauty and culture.

5. Rupaidiha (India) to Nepalgunj (Nepal)
The route is perfect for travelers heading to Bardia National Park, a gateway for wildlife safaris where visitors can spot exotic animals. Alternatively, travelers can explore the stunning Rara Lake or visit the sacred Swargadwari Temple, both offering unique experiences in western Nepal.

6. Panitanki (India) to Kakdvitta (Nepal)
The route is perfect for those heading to eastern part of Nepal to enjoy peaceful retreat of landscapes, lush tea gardens, and the tranquility of the area. Also travellers can go trek at Kanchenjunga Base Camp for nature and adventure lovers.

7. Gorakhpur (India) to Sunauli (Nepal)
The Gorakhpur route, about 100 km from the Sunauli border, is popular for travelers heading to Lumbini, the birthplace of Lord Buddha. It's ideal for pilgrims and cultural tourists continuing to Kathmandu or exploring scenic western Nepal.
